Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! For claims under Section 2 of your policy, if your vehicle is repairable as a result of damage sustained that is covered by this policy and the repairer chosen by you is not one of our Authorised Repairers, then an additional excess will apply. This excess will apply in addition to any other excesses and is indicated on your policy Endorsements.
- ! Extension of your policy cover for European Cover (Foreign Use) is limited to a maximum of 45 days and your main permanent home is in the UK.
- ! Courtesy vehicle is only available during repair to your vehicle following an insured accident, when using an Approved Repairer.
- ! The audio equipment limit specified is only for non manufacturer equipment that is permanently installed.
- ! We will at our option make a payment of cash or repair or reinstate or replace parts, following loss of or damage to the vehicle.
- ! If a tracking device is required (indicated by policy Endorsement), or, you declare that your vehicle is fitted with an approved tracking/satellite device, we will not supply cover under Section 2 of your policy in respect of Theft or Attempted Theft unless a copy of the installation certificate is sent to us on submission of a claim, the device was activated at the time of the loss, all subscriptions are paid and up to date, and, the tracking/satellite device is notified within four hours of the discovery of the loss.

Where am I covered?

- ✓ British Isles and any member country of the European Union, Iceland, Norway, Switzerland and Serbia (please refer to your policy documentation for any restrictions and exclusions that apply).

What are my obligations?

- You must provide honest, accurate and complete information to us or your insurance broker as required.
 - You must tell us immediately about any changes such as, but not limited to, change of drivers, change of vehicle or modifications to the vehicle, criminal or motoring convictions, change of occupation or where the vehicle will be kept. If you have given us inaccurate information this can affect your policy in one or more of the following ways (please refer to the General Terms and Conditions in your Policy Wording for full details):
 - We can charge you the appropriate additional premium.
 - If a claim has been intimated, we may adopt a proportional approach to settle the claim.
 - Void the policy back to its inception as if it never existed and repay the premiums paid and seek to recover from you any money paid towards any claims received including costs or expenses we have incurred.
 - If we would have applied different terms to your policy, we can treat your policy as if those different terms apply.
 - You must advise of any incident which may result in a claim as soon as possible by contacting our Claimline and send us immediately any writ, summons, letter or communication which you receive in connection with any incident.
 - You must not admit to, negotiate on, promise to pay or refuse any claim unless you have written permission from us.
 - Your vehicle must be kept in a roadworthy and good condition.
 - You must pay your premium.
 - Pay any excess applicable as per your Policy Schedule and Endorsements.
 - Any person driving the vehicle must have your permission to do so and have the appropriate Insurance cover and relevant driving licence place to do so.
 - You must ensure that the vehicle is locked when it is unattended by you or any drivers permitted to drive the vehicle.
 - You must ensure that there is a valid Department for Transport test certificate (MOT) in force for your vehicle if one is needed by law.
- You must fulfil your obligations and comply with all terms and conditions, as far as possible; otherwise we may not be able to deal with your claim.

When and how do I pay?

- You pay your broker, this may be a one off payment or your broker may be able to arrange credit facilities if required.

When does the cover start and end?

- Your policy covers you for 12 months from the date you request your policy to be started. This date will be shown within your Policy Schedule.

How do I cancel the contract?

Cancellation Rights (cooling off period): If you decide that you do not want to accept the policy (or any subsequent renewal of the policy by us), please contact your insurance broker using the details provided on the covering letter within 14 days of receiving the policy documentation (or for renewals, within 14 days or your policy renewal date). We will only charge you on a pro rata basis for the time we have been on cover subject to a minimum premium of £35 (plus insurance premium tax). The balance of the premium will be returned to you, but there will be no refund where you are cancelling the policy following a claim in the period of insurance.

Cancelling your policy after 14 days: You may be entitled to a refund of premium providing no claim has been made during the current period of insurance. This will be calculated on a proportionate basis and include a deduction of £35 to cover administrative costs of processing the insurance. These charges will be subject to Insurance Premium Tax where applicable.

In any of the above cancellation circumstances, you may also be charged a fee by your insurance broker for the cancellation of your insurance.
